Open-ended quotes:

“The conference is always a precious moment for members. It is about networking enrichment and sharing of experiences.”

Paola Pacciotti, Tetra Pak

“It was a great orientation and experience having been able to connect with so many professionals and learning from their experiences. Thank you for putting together this fantastic opportunity where briefing professionals have come forth and shared their challenges and success tips so openly.

– Munira Patel, Tata Sons

“Being at the European conference not only allowed me to bridge the gap from country to country but created a bond with my international colleagues. I have learned so much about the different cultures I hadn't experienced. I can now bring that knowledge back to the states and create a better international customer experience.
